Men and Women Now-a-days.

Father Langley's opinion of the present generation.— "Failed, has he! I wonder they don't all fail! For what with the extravagance and good-for-nothingness of the men and women now-a-days, where is it all to end? Call themselves "Sons of the Pilgrims" do they? I wish to mercy their old grandfathers could see them! They were true grit—real hearts of oak—but these popinjays are nothing in the world but veneering! When I was a boy, it used to be the fashion for boys to be apprentices till they larnt their trade; but now, they are all bosses! There ain't no boys now-a-days! They set up for themselves as soon as they are weaned—know a mighty sight more than their fathers and grandfathers—you can't tell them anything—they know it all! Their fathers sweated and tugged in a corn-field at the tail of a plow, or else over an anvil; but they can't do it! They are far too grand to dirty their fingers! They must wear fine cloth and shirt collars up to their ears—be made into lawyers, learn doctoring, set themselves up as preachers, telling us we ought to do this or that; or else get behind a counter to measure off ribbin and tape. Smart work for two-fisted men! MEN, did I say! They ain't worth mor'n half men! If we go on at this rate, the race will run out by another generation—we shan't have nothing left but a mixture of coxcomb and monkey!

The women, too, are no better—it is just even so. They are brought up, good for nothing under the sun, but to put in a buffet! When I was a boy, it wasn't so.—The spinning-wheel stood in the kitchen, and the dye-tub in the corner! They were put to work as soon as they could walk; they didn't have no nursery maid to run after them; their mothers warn't ashamed to tend their own babies! They could sow on a patch, and rock the cradle beside.—The gals were good for something in those times; they could spin and weave wool and linen, linsey-wolsey, red and blue, and wear it, too, after it was done!

They could eat bean porridge with a pewter spoon, and they were enough-sight happier, and better suited, than the gals are now, with their silk gowns, their French messes, and silver forks; yawning and moping about; silly, pale-face things, with nothing to do! SET THEM TO WORK! Set them to work! Put them at it early! Idleness is the Devil's foreman; and no chain is so strong, as the iron of habit.—Watts was nobody's fool, I can tell you. He knew what was what. Folks don't stand still here in this world; they are going one way or t'other. If they ain't drawing the sled up hill, they'll be sliding down! Adam was a farmer, and Eve hadn't no "Irish gal," nor "nigger wench," to wait upon her! What do these popinjays say to that! Ashamed of the old folks, I'll warrant!—Adam wasn't nobody—Eve wasn't nobody, they know it all!

But they can't work—they are so delicate—they are "so weakly!" What has made them weakly! Send off your chambermaids, your cooks, your washerwomen; and set your own gals about it! It made smart women of their grandmothers, and if the old blood ain't run out, they'll be good for something yet!

It used to be the fashion to be honest; if a man got in debt, he tried to pay; if he didn't, public opinion set a mark upon him; but it ain't so now; he tries not to pay; he'll lie, cheat and steal; (for what better is it than stealing!) and the one that can cheat the fastest is the best fellow! It is astonishing how slippery these fellows are.—Slip through the smallest holes—don't make no more of it than a weasel! just as soon think of catching a flea napping, as one of them! They drive fast teams, without bit or curb; buy all they can; pay for as little as possible; pocket all they can carry; they fail; make a smash; snap their fingers at their creditors; go to Californy, or to grass; nobody knows where; and begin again!—Good gracious, if some of these fellows had lived forty years ago, they'd have clapped them in prison and shaved their heads!

NATIONAL FREE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Notice is hereby given, that a National Convention, consisting of Delegates of the Free Democracy, will assemble at the city of Pittsburgh, on Wednesday, the 11th day of August next, at noon, for the purpose of selecting candidates for the offices of President and Vice-President of the United States. Friends of the principles declared at Buffalo, at the memorable Convention of August, 1848, are requested, within their respective States and Congressional Districts, to meet and elect Delegates, wherever the same has not already been done---each State being entitled to three times the number of its delegation in the Congress of the United States.

By order of the General Free Soil Committee,
SAMUEL LEWIS, Chairman.

Washington, June 19, 1852.

A PLATE OF SOUP.---Byron Paine, Esq., in his speech at the Waukesha Convention, gave the best illustration we have seen of the folly of those who pretend to repudiate the Slave principles of the Baltimore Platform and yet support the candidate who has endorsed and who represents those principles. He said:

"And now, Gentlemen, how is it with the Whigs. The dish of soup which the Baltimore Convention has prepared for them is nauseous and unpleasant. They can't swallow it, and they say they won't swallow it. And just see what an abominable expedient they have hit upon to get rid of it. They have got General Scott, whose capacities in that line have become somewhat notorious, to swallow the soup and then they swallow him. Gentlemen, if they had literally performed such a feat, they might, with just as much propriety and truth, come before an honest and intelligent people, and assert that the soup had never passed down their throats, as they can now assert that in supporting his election, standing as he does, on the Baltimore Platform, they do not endorse the measures and principles which that Platform contains."

☞ The citizens of Kenosha hold an election on the 3d of August, to determine whether the Mayor and City Council shall make a loan of $20,000, on the faith of the city, to run 10 years, at 6 per cent.

☞ The Mineral Point Tribune announces as an independent candidate for Judge of the 5th Judicial Circuit, the present incumbent of the office, the Hon. M. M. Jackson. His opponent is M. M. Cothren, who received a regular nomination by a Democratic Convention.

☞ The editor of the Mineral Point Tribune, is highly gratified with the improvements going on in that village.

☞ A new Baptist Church was dedicated at Lancaster, Grant Co., on the 4th instant. This is the third Church that has been dedicated in that village within nine months, and another one is in process of erection. The Lord's work must be prospering in Lancaster.

DROWNED.---Mr. Alexander Barclay, of Richmond, Richland Co., was drowned in the Wisconsin River, on the 30th ult., while wading the river.

☞ A Normal Teacher's Institute is to commence at Lancaster, Grant county, on Monday next, and continue through the week.

Dr. Ladd, Prof. Sweet, a distinguished Normal instructor, and Mr. Childs of Galena, will be present to conduct the Institute.

JUDICIAL.---A convention will be held at Grand Chute, on the 30th inst., to elect a delegate to represent the Counties of Outagamie, Oconto and Waupaca, at the State Judicial Convention.

REMOVAL.---The Board of Public Works have ordered the removal of the Engineer's Office from Green Bay to Oshkosh.

☞ Mr. Hadley, editor of the Watertown Chronicle, left for the East last evening. He intends to be at the celebration of the battle of Lundy's Lane, next week.

☞ The explosion of a powder magazine at Lafayette, Indiana, caused $50,000 damage. Most of the buildings in town were more or less injured.

☞ The Sentinel is troubled lest we shall get some Whigs into the Pittsburgh movement. We probably shall.

Business Correspondence.

Fond du Lac, July 22, '52.

S. M. Booth, Esq.:

I send you $3,00 for the 'Free Democrat.' I am much pleased with your course in regard to the Old Hunker Parties, and think all true Democrats will support the Pittsburgh nominations. We intend to wake up here and fight for Liberty, next November. Yours respectfully,

D. D. COOPER.

———, July 21, '52.

Friend Booth:

I send another instalment making 27 new subscribers in all, which, with your former number, makes up a large list. All goes on bravely.

Spring Prairie, Walworth Co., Wis., July 19, '52.

Friend Booth:

As I was about starting for a short ride, a few days since, I thrust a copy of the 'Free Democrat into my pocket, thinking that, perchance I might, besides attending to my own business, do something for you. As the result, I send you the names of eight new subscribers, all from the Old Hunker parties. They say there is no issue between Whigs and Democrats worth contending about, save the spoils; that they are tired of the eternal ringing of the changes on Federalism and Locofocoism, Scott and Pierce, Fuss-feathers, Faintings, &c., &c., kept up by their party journals, and want a paper that dares to discuss principles, and speaks the truth boldly.

Free Sollers here are awake, and full of courage, and hope. They are constantly receiving accessions to their ranks from both of the old parties---not Spoil-hunters, but of honest, earnest-hearted men, whose eyes (thanks to the Baltimore Platform,) are at last open to the true position of these parties, and now, disgusted with the infamous attempt to shackle the speech of FREEMEN, and make Southern blood-hounds of themselves and their children forever, they repudiate not only the Platforms, but the parties that framed them, and the candidates that stand upon them. Walworth is all right, and although we have lost our Little Luminary, which has been transformed, by some alchemistic hocus-pocus, into a Loco Foco gas-burner, yet we will keep the Free Soil Watch-Fires blazing so brightly that Star-light shall be invisible throughout the county.

Look out for more next week.

Yours, in haste,
J. H. COOPER.

Geneva, July 22, '52.

Friend Booth:

I send you $5,00, for the above 10 subscribers, which makes twenty-one, in all, with what I sent you one week ago. I have taken 50 for my stent in this Assembly District, and intend to send for 10 a week until I come up to the mark, besides doing something nice for Brother Clement.

Yours, for Agitation,
J. GATES.

☞ The temper of our cotemporary of the Waukesha Democrat, which was not remarkably sweet formerly, seems to have been entirely ruined since he became a Benedict. However, to have to give up Free Soil, Land Reform and every progressive principle that he formerly professed, and go it blind for Hunkerism and Slavery, is enough to destroy the equanimity of a well balanced mind. No wonder, then, that the wreck of all his professions has overcome him. We pity him, but there is no help for such a disaster. There is one thing singular about his disease; he thinks it a crime for his neighbors to increase their subscription list, and a sin to take pay for new subscriptions. We suppose our neighbor is guiltless of any such offenses and is not likely to be tempted in that way, but he ought to have a little charity for those who are not so peculiarly situated as he is.

We are not so insatiate for money, as to threaten publicly to sue our subscribers, and then publish a wood cut, representing a vulture in the act of devouring one who owed us. If we had been guilty of such acts, we should not charge others with loving money.

☞ The Editor of the Western Star devotes a large portion of his last paper to a denunciation of his own course for the last four years, and to arguments to prove either that he has been a political knave all that time, or that he has recently become one. We think he has been quite successful. Our Delevan correspondent shows what his new allies think of him. When a man is in a quagmire up to his armpits, with no friendly hand to lift him out, every struggle to extricate himself, but sinks him the deeper. "Facilis descensus Averni," &c. "The descent to hell is easy." You know the rest of the quotation, Doctor. See if you don't prove it true.

PARTY AUTHORITY.---The Kenosha Telegraph says that six persons attended the Pierce & King caucus in one of the Wards of that city to help make Supreme Judges, of which one was a Whig and one a Free Soiler. Three of the poor Pierceites were appointed delegates to the District Convention, &c. Such nominations must be very Binding.

WONDERFUL.---The News has received a letter from a high Democrat---[Gen. Boyd?] of Walworth county, that "our county stands fairer for a good round Democratic vote this fall, than it has since the free soil fuss in 1848."

That is the old story, diminished somewhat. Two years ago the Hunkers were going to carry that county. They are not quite as likely to do it this year as they were two years ago.

Correspondence of the Free Democrat,

DELAVAN, July 17, 1852.

Dear Booth:---Don't bother much with this Star man and matter. It won't pay.---I will show you how some of his friends regard him, and will relate a conversation I heard to-day.

One of our friends was conversing on politics, with an acquaintance from an adjoining town, who remarked that he was one of the strait-out Hunkers. "Yes," said he with an oath, "they said we couldn't raise a vote in our town, and I got in thirty of them at the last election." "And," says he, "they say Durkee is going for Pierce and King." "And John P. Hale too," I remarked, "according to the Star!" "D---n the Star," was his reply, "but didn't I give the old fellow particular ——the other day, in our town!" "But," said our friend, "hold on, such talk won't do, will it, till after election?" "Well," says he, "you know how it is---we like the fun---the treachery, as the saying is, but d---n the traitor!---we can't trust him!"

SUBSCRIBER.

P. S. I have never known so much apathy here, in regard to any nominations as these late ones---it seems impossible to excite any interest---it is a perfect dead-set among the people, who are anxiously awaiting the Pittsburgh nominations.

TRYING TO PROVE PIERCE DISHONEST.---The Wisconsin publishes a reported conversation of Gen. Pierce, last January, in which he declared the Fugitive Slave Law to be opposed to "the common law, to humanity, and to moral right." And the Wisconsin is stupid enough to add:

"We do not believe that he heartily approved of its provisions any more than those who are so violent in their noisy denunciations of him for his obedience the law.

Gen. Pierce, in accepting the nomination, said of the Platform embracing the Fugitive Slave Law:

"I accept the nomination upon THE PLATFORM ADOPTED BY THE CONVENTION, NOT BECAUSE THIS IS EXPECTED OF ME AS A CANDIDATE, BUT BECAUSE THE PRINCIPLES IT EMBRACES COMMAND THE APPROBATION OF MY JUDGMENT; and with them I believe I can safely say THERE HAS BEEN NO WORD NOR ACT OF MY LIFE IN CONFLICT."

If this declaration is true, the report of such a conversation as the Wisconsin publishes is a falsehood. But if the reported conversation, or the Wisconsin's endorsement above, that he does not heartily approove of the provisions of the Fugitive Slave Law, is true, Gen. Pierce is an unmitigated villain, and is trying to get votes under false protences. If the Wisconsin is right Gen. Pierce is fitter for the Penitentiary than for the Presidency. What a political Editor is fit for, who makes such havoc of the character of his own Presidential candidate, except for a lunatic asylum, we wont pretend to say.

☞ The Waukesha Democrat occupies two-thirds of a column in advertising an infamous work which has been put forth under different cognomens. It is of the Madame Restell class of works, and should be scouted by every honest publisher. We believe all the papers in this city have refused this Advertisement. We have, at least four times.

☞ There was a full moon on the 1st of July, and there will be another on the 31st---a circumstance that has not occurred since 1776, when there was a full moon on the 1st and on the 30th.

☞ The Western Star says falsely that the Convention of Free Democrats at Elkhorn objected to the reading of the call for the Hunker meeting, and declared it to be out of order. Mr. Cowdry came in, and just as the Chairman was putting the vote on a motion to invite all persons present of all parties to take part in the proceedings of the meeting, he asked permission to read the call. The Chairman assured him as soon as the vote was taken, he could do so. No one had the least objection to his reading it. After the vote, he simply announced that the Hunker meeting would be out doors, and invited the friends of the call to meet there.

☞ Since iron rails were laid down around the Lake, the Chicago Tribune says that but one wolf has been seen South of them.---The sheep-folds are no longer molested.---The wolves don't like the smell of iron.

☞ The bodies of those killed by the explosion of the St. James, on Lake Pontchartrain were robbed and mutilated by some lake rovers. In some cases the fingers of women were cut off to get the gold rings they wore. In others, their ears were slit open for the ear-rings.

SPIRIT RAPPING.---We learn by the Opal, published by the inmates of the State Lunatic Asylum, at Utica, that there are in that refuge at present 14 victims of this imposture, whose insanity is ascribed to this source.

☞ The difficulty between the Hollis street church, Boston, and Rev. John Pierpont, has been settled by a compromise, he received $2,500, being half of what he claimed. The case has been before the Supreme Court for several years.

☞ The Editor of the Western Star has just discovered that Senator Chase, of Ohio, isn't much of a man. So long as he thought Chase was going for Pierce, he was an oracle. The Hunker presses have just discovered that the Star is a burning and shining light in the Western firmament.---A short time ago the Racine Advocate was the great Free Soil organ, but the bait did not catch anything, and now there never was so powerful and convincing a writer as the Editor of the Star.

☞ Gov. Martin, of New Hampshire, is convalescing.

For the Daily Free Democrat.

Song for the Young Democracy.

Nine cheers for Hale, our champion!
For old New Hampshire's freest son;
Long may he live, to be our light,
The foremost in fair freedom's fight.

Cheer up, my boys, once more give way,
Nine cheers for Cassius Marion Clay!
His noble soul, his glorious mind,
Leaves all the Hunkers far behind.

Then "nine times nine" for Hale and Clay!
For Clay and Hale, my boys, give way.
March on! march on! we're wide awake---
We'll follow you, for Freedom's sake.

We'll follow you through thick and thin,
Through thin and thick, until we win;
Until the slavery minions quail,
Before the march of Clay and Hale.

Before the march of "Liberty
And Truth" are crushed "finality,"
And freedom's hosts o'er hill and vale
Shout "nine times nine" for Clay and Hale.

Break, day of light, we long for thee!
Three millions crave for Liberty.
Behold their tears and hear their cries,
'Mid "Hail Columbia!"---Friends arise!

With Hale and Clay, to lead the van,
To teach the millions "Man is man,"
And though in chains he born may be,
Through God in heaven, he shall be Free!

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

☞ Michael Casey, whom we reported as being killed yesterday, at McCrea & Bell's building, it seems was not dead when we went to press, though his skull and arm were broken. He was taken home, and the operation of amputation of the arm was performed by Dr. Hatchard, assisted by his partner in practice Dr. Crugorn, and Dr. Garner, but, we regret to say, death ensued about 8 P. M.

MILWAUKEE BIBLE SOCIETY.---The anniversary of the Milwaukee Bible Society will be held to-morrow evening, July 24th, at the Plymouth Church. Interesting addresses may be expected.

The public are respectfully invited to attend.

☞ The 2d Ward special election, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Ald. Phelps, resulted in the selection of Jasper Vliet, Esq. The vote was light.

☞ A Cricket match between the Senior and Junior Clubs, comes off on Spring street Hill, this afternoon.

☞ Dr. BARRETT will address the Free Congregational Church to-morrow Evening, at 7½ o'clock.

Subject: The Sabbath---its effects upon the health of the community.

METHODIST CHURCH IN THE 5TH WARD.---Mr. Daniel Wait, of this city, is about to visit the East to raise funds for the Mission Church in the Fifth Ward. The Society need help to build a house, pay for a lot, and help support a Missionary. We commend Mr. Wait and his enterprise to those on whom he may call.

THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH.---We publish the communication on this subject, because we believe in free discussion and in hearing both sides. We believe in the rights of conscience, but not in having one class of men violate the rights of conscience of another class. We do not now refer to the Constitutional argument. The state of the case we take to be this: The majority of our people believe in the Christian Sabbath. It is their right to worship God on that day undisturbed by noisy or unusual demonstrations. To celebrate Independence on Sunday was not a religious duty, nor a matter of conscience at all. It was done on that day to manifest a contempt for the Sabbath, and was an annoyance to the Sabbath-keeping portion of the community, and on those grounds, if on no other, wrong. If Christians are wrong in keeping the Sabbath, this is not the best way to convince them of it. We believe in the "higher law," but those who do not must not squirm, when the "lower law" pinches them. Laws should be framed to protect men's rights---never to infringe upon men's consciences.

☞ The new schooner D. Newhall is loading with oats for Buffalo.

PECUNIARY HONOR.---The Editor of the Kenosha Democrat, not content with abusing us politically, assails our character as a business man, thus:

"Most all men in these parts, especially the Whigs, are perfectly well aware that his favors can be bought for a shilling or so, if wanted. All we want of him in particular, is to keep his nose out of the affairs of this county, and if he don't it will get kicked out---that's all."

When we were in Kenosha, a year ago, the author of the above attack asked us to send him our Daily, and he would pay for it. We sent it accordingly, but he did not pay for it, nor send us his Weekly in exchange, which if he had done, we should never have asked him for pay. At the end of six months we sent him our bill for $2,00, with a note that he had not sent his paper to us. But instead of paying us, he has continued to favor us with such notices as the above. Let the public judge between us.

MASONIC.---The officers of the Waukesha Lodge will be publicly installed at that place on the 30th inst.

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

SATURDAY:.....JULY 24.

For the Free Democrat.

The Christian Sabbath, as established by law, Unconstitutional.

Mr. Editor:—In the Sentinel of the 13th inst., there is a communication, signed "Americans," which denounces a portion of our German citizens, as violators of our Sabbath laws, and as desecrators of the Sabbath-day, and that, because they have celebrated the Fourth of July, the anniversary of American Independence, on the 4th of July, which day happened to come, this year, on a Sunday. As regards the said signature, the bloody intentions, expressed in every line of that fabrication, show but too clearly, that it is merely a mask, and that, if its plurality has any foundation, it ought to read: "A set of '——s,' that long to see a second Bartholomew's night." Therefore, not to abuse the name "Americans," by applying it to reptiles of that sort, I shall use this sign, whenever I shall have occasion so designate them as authors of that fabrication.

On the same subject two more communications have appeared in the Sentinel, antecedent to the one above mentioned; the first signed "A German," and the second, a reply to the first, "A. Roesler." I did not read Mr. Roesler's reply; but perceiving from the communication, before me, that he did not beat the enemy out of the field, I conclude that he could not have made use of the proper weapons for accomplishing his purpose, i. e. the Constitution of the U. S., as well as that of our own State; therefore I will take up the contest and use these weapons, knowing the "——s" hate them even worse than the Devil does the Bible.

The U. S. Constitution declares: "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof;" and our State Constitution says: "nor shall any control of, or interference with the rights of conscience be permitted, or ANY PREFERENCE BE GIVEN BY LAW to any religious establishments, or mode of worship."

Either not knowing, or purposely forgetting, that there are such clauses as these, in our Constitutions, the "——s" say:

"Our entire English speaking, and a great majority of our German population have been brought up, to accept the precepts of Christianity, to venerate the first day of the week, and to consider any attempt to encroach publicly upon the honor of that day, as a violation of their rights as citizens and Christians."

So our "——s" "insist, that no person shall encroach publicly upon the honor of the first day of the week, and that any attempt to do so is a violation of their rights as Christians"—that is, as much as to say, all the people of the United States, Jews, Mahometans, and the professors of all other creeds, shall refrain on that day from all business, amusements, &c. And why!—Because it is the Sabbath of the Christians, and because the Christians are entitled to claim this consideration for their religion from all other creeds—it is their right as Christians. Now, does the title to such a claim not constitute one of the prerogatives of an established religion? And, consequently, is not the attempt to usurp that title a violation of both Constitutions! Again, according to both these instruments, the professors of all creeds whatsoever are entitled to the same rights and privileges with the Christians. What follows hence for the Christians, if they claim, that all the people of the U. S., without a single exception, shall respect their Sabbath, by at least refraining from all business, amusements, &c.! Why, it follows, that the Christians, in return, will have, in the same manner, to respect the Saturday of the Jews, the Friday of the Mahometans, and the sacred days of all other creeds that are, or may be hereafter. Hurrah for all the Sundays!! But the Christian, money-loving, businessmen, the farmers, mechanics, and all other good Christians that cannot live upon air, say: No, we will only have one Sunday, to wit: the first day of the week, on that, and only on that day we will rest. What is the Saturday of the Jews, or the Friday of the Mahometans to us! As long now as these good Christians say so, so long, at least, the professors of any other creed and even that denounced faction of Germans, who do not believe in the Christian Sabbath, are not Constitutionally bound to respect it; and, consequently, they are at full liberty to employ their time, on that day, as the law allows them to do on any other.—It follows, then, that the Sabbath-law of our own Statute-book, "Sec. 21, Chap. 139," which the "——s" quote, is unconstitutional, and, therefore, not obligatory on any one.

As to the religion of that denounced faction of Germans, of which the "——s" are endeavoring to represent them as being entirely devoid, the essence of it is, to devote every day of their lives to the glory of God, by practising charity in the widest sense of the word, and by accepting his blessings with a joyful and a joyous heart. According to this religion of theirs, they would consider it an insult to God, if they were, for the sake of a set of ——, to postpone to another day the celebration of the anniversary of the Independence of their adopted country, which Independence they look upon as one of the greatest blessings.—The postponement of that celebration would have been against their hearts and consciences, consequently, contrary to their religion; and as this religion contains nothing in conflict with either of our Constitutions, there is no authority upon earth, that can hinder them in the free exercise thereof.

(Here I cannot avoid remarking, that our enemies must allow, according to their own way of reasoning, that the celebration on the fourth must have been acceptable, and that on the fifth very displeasing to God, since, as far as we have heard, the former was attended with no fatal accidents, but the latter with a great many.)

As to the authority from which the "——s" derive the duty of keeping the first day of the week sacred, I will forbear to say any thing about it, since that is a subject which would make me trespass upon the limits of a paper that is not exclusively devoted to religious controversy. Neither will I say anything about all those accusations of the "——s" of which the unprejudiced portion of the public are competent to judge for themselves; however, I cannot pass silently over two lies, which the "——s" have the impudence of telling with great assurance. The first regards the two respectable German papers in Milwaukee. Our "——s" say, that they need only give translations of articles of those papers, to identify the leaders of that turbulent faction of Germans, as the "——s" call them, with the Red Republicans of Switzerland. I have been, for years, an attentive reader of both these papers, but I have never seen anything in them that was contrary to the Constitution of the U. S. Both of them as strenuously insist upon abiding by that instrument, as they are advocating its being carried out. But this, I suppose, the "——s" call Red Republicanism—if not, I defy them to give those translations.

The second lie which the "——s" tell is what they say about the City of Hamburg, in Germany, my native place, and of which I was a resident for thirty years. In speaking of that place, they give Mr. Roesler the lie by saying, that the Theatres there are closed on Saturday evening by law.—But I can assure your readers, that this is a lie, and that I was many a Sunday evening, my own on Good Friday evenings, in the Theatre, which latter day is kept the strictest of all the Sun and Festival days of the whole year, in all Germany.

Constitutio et Libertas.

Items from the Grant County Herald.

Property is rising in value in the south part of this county on account of the prospects of soon being in proximity with the Railroad.

Lancaster presents quite a motley appearance to strangers just now—there being a good many present looking for homes. The old Temple of Justice is rather a forbidding spectacle, half shorn of its mantle, uncovered, and its bowels torn out, as by a merciless enemy—but we look to the resurrection, in which we hope for a new and more substantial edifice.

Some of the farmers of Blake's Prairie, have recently lost some 20 or 30 head of cattle, by a strange and fatal disease. Cattle are attacked suddenly, and die in a few hours. From an examination of one or two carcasses, the lungs and heart were found to be in a diseased condition; but the name and character of the scourge are unknown to all.

Muscoda.—From Muscoda, we learn that the Wisconsin river is rising, and is now at a good stage for boats and rafts. The steamer Berlin from Lake Winnebago, passed down on Thursday last. Business at Muscoda is brisk for the season. A number of mechanics have just set up shops, and expect to carry on a large business.

Strange—"No physician there."

Tobacco in Wisconsin.—A gentleman has recently commenced the culture of Tobacco in the interior of Richland county Wis. He manufactured during the year past, and has now in process of manufacture, about 14,000 lbs. We were shown a specimen of the article prepared at his factory, and though not equal to the best Missouri, it is superior to much that is brought here, sold and used as prime St. Louis manufactured tobacco.

The Mississippi is rising slowly. The steamer Nominee intends making two trips a week from Galena to St Paul during the remainder of the season.

Congress.—Not much done. A bill to admit railroad iron free of duty was read twice, and laid on the table, 88 to 69. The Indian Appropriation bill and the Deficiency bill have passed, the House finally receding and agreeing to pay $50,000 for the Senate mileage swindle—that is for constructive mileage—for travelling, when they but went to the their boarding houses and back.

Mr. Sibley, Delegate from Minnesota, tried to get in a small appropriation to keep the wretched Indians in and around that part of the country from absolute starvation in case of a failure of crops or game, or other unavoidable cause. This was opposed by Messrs. Phelps of Mo., Jones of Tenn., Johnson of Ark., Johnson of Ga., and Dunham of Ind., (all Dem.); and advocated by Messrs. Durkee of Wis., and Giddings of Ohio, (Free Soilers); and Venable of N. C., and Stanton of Ohio, (Whig.)

Mr. Durkee said the Government had made sixty millions of dollars by its land transactions with the Indians, and now we, as a great nation, boasting of our liberties and justice, refuse to provide for those poor savages who are in a starving condition.

The Last Dodge.—The News complains that the Whigs have added a million and a quarter dollars to the River and Harbor Appropriation Bill and made it so big that the Democrats dare not vote for it. As the Democrats have an overwhelming majority in both Houses of Congress and can modify or pass any bill they choose, this special plea of the News is too shallow for the smallest kind of a pettifogger.

☞ The Free Democracy hold the balance of power between the two parties, and can decide the fate of either if they choose.—The knowledge of this fact, one would suppose, would induce the Hunkers to treat Free Democrats with at least ordinary civility. But whom the gods would destroy they first make mad. And the Hunkers seem demented.

☞ The Sheboygan Mercury says that Mr. Hawley's dredge arrived at that place on Tuesday evening last, and is now in operation. Its arrival was celebrated by the firing of cannon.

LITTLE EVA.....By J. G. Whittier.

Dry the tears for holy Eva,
With the blessed angels leave her,
Of the form so sweet and fair,
Give to earth the tender care.
For the golden locks of Eva
Let the sunny south land give her
Flower pillow of repose,
Orange bloom and budding rose.
All is light and peace with Eva,
There the darkness cometh never,
Tears are wiped, and fetters fall,
And the Lord is all in all.
Weep no more for happy Eva,
Wrong and sin no more shall grieve her,
Care and pain and weariness
Lost in Love so measureless.
Gentle Eva, loving Eva,
Child confessor, true believer,
Listener at the Master's knee,
"Suffer such to come to me;
Oh, for faith like thine, sweet Eva,
Lighting all the solemn river,
And the blessing of the poor
Waiting to the heavenly shore.

A Dutch Judge.—A friend gives us an amusing idea of a Dutch Judge in the following sketch:

He was about to sentence a prisoner, and on looking around him, found him playing chequers with his custodian, while the foreman of the jury was fast asleep.—Replenishing the ample judicial chair with his broadest person, he thus addressed the jury: "Mister voreman and t'oder jurymans: Dor brisoner, Hans Viecter, is vinished his game mit der sheriff und has put him, but I shall dake care he don't peat me. Hans has peen dried for murder before you, and you must pring in der verdict, but it must be 'cordin' to der law.—De man he kill't wasn't kill't at all, as it was broved he is in der jail at Morrisdown for sheep-stealing. Put dat ish no madder. Der law says, ven dere ish a tou't you give 'em to der brisoner; but here ish no tou't—so you see der brisoner ish guilty. Pesides, he is a great loafer. I haf knowed him vifty years und he hasn't done a schtich of work in all dat times, und dere ish no one debending on him for deir livin', und he is no use to any pony. I dink it would be a good blan to hang him for de example. I dink, Mr. Voremans, dat he had petter pe hung next fourt' o' July, as der militia ish goin' to drain in anoder county, und dere would po no run goin' on here." It should be added, to the credit of the jury, that in spite of this learned and impartial charge, they acquitted the "brisoner," finding him "not guilty, if he would leave the State."—Knickerbocker Magazine.

Abolition Convention.—The Mass Meeting, so called, of the abolitionists, at Waukesha, day before yesterday, was attended by about 100 persons, as we learn from authority that would not be likely to underrate it. The affair came off in one of the small churches of the village. Speeches were made and the usual proceedings had.—Some dozen or fifteen delegates were appointed to attend the Pittsburgh Convention. But few persons were present from a distance.—Milwaukee Morning News.

Emigration.—For the entire season we have seen day after day large loads of emigrants passing through our town on their way to the western part of this county and to Sauk and Richland counties. Those sections must be pretty well filled up by this time. The principal portion of these emigrants are German and exhibit evidence of intelligence, health and substance.—Madison Democrat.

Southern Wisconsin Railroad.—There will be a meeting of the Board of Directors of this road at this place, on the 30th inst., to adopt measures for the immediate opening of books, survey of the route, and early prosecution of the work. Arrangements have been made for the building of the road from Janesville to Milton.—Monroe Sentinel.

Sale of Real Estate.—The tract of land known as the North Point property, embracing 106 acres, and lying from a mile to a mile and a half from the business streets of our city, has been disposed of by the proprietors Messrs. E. Townsend, Diederich, Mohr and Wendt, for $32,000. This is a handsome advance on the price paid by them a year ago, for the same property. A portion of this land was offered to the city, not long since, for a Public Park, but the offer was declined.—Sentinel.

[Though Mr. Tipple-none has not a great many relations in this city, still our readers may like to know how the family get along abroad. The history of Tipple-none is well known in this community.—Ed. Free Dem.]

From the Canada Temperance Advocate.

Mr. Tipple-none.

Tipple-a-little, Tipple-more,
And Mr. Tipple-none,
Began to talk together once,
'Twas all their language ran;
Said Tipple-a-little to Tipple-none,
My dearest sir, I think
'Tis wrong to banish from the land,
All but teetotal drink,
Because a little spirit's good,
Whene'er the flesh is weak;
But, then, to drink too much is wrong;
'Tis not for that I speak,
But when one's wet, or when one's dry,
Or when one's cold or when
One's not exactly one of these,
I like a little then.
That's just the thing quoth Tipple-much,
Rising from where he sat,
And trying to balance as he walk'd
That's right, I'll stick to that.
But then, to drink too much, why that—
Why that, I should deplore;
That's right, that's right, quoth Tipple-more,
Who look'd more drunk than wise,
That's just the talk I like, quoth he,
Come brother, join our band;
We'll take another glass on that,
And seized him by the hand,
With blood-shot eyes, and ragged clothes,
Came then poor Tipple-all,
And told his brothers at the bar—
And for his liquor call.
Is Tipple-a-little then your friend?
Good Tipple-none replied;
You see how all these Tipples range,
Themselves upon your side.
'Tis right they should, for one by one,
From grade to grade you fall;
Thus Tipple-a-little comes at last
To be poor Tipple-all,
Yet each approves your arguments,
All say don't drink to much;
And every one in Drunkendom;
Is crowded full of such,
So let me caution all of you,
And counsel every one—
To take the only name that's safe;
And that is—TIPPLE-NONE.

SLOAN'S LIFE SYRUP

IS altogether superior to any Medicine heretofore discovered for the rapid cure of Colds, Coughs, Influenza, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease; also for all diseases which originate from impurity of the blood, to wit: Salt Rheum, Mercurial, Syphilitic or Venereal, and Eruptive, or Diseases of the Skin, as Blotches, Pimples or Pustules, and all Itching Eruptions, Chronic Inflammation of the Liver, White Swellings, Necrosis, or Fever Sores, Rickets, Fistula, and King's Evil; in short, in every taint in the System or Blood, from whatever cause it may arise, or of however long standing, this medicine will be found far superior to any other remedy.

This Syrup rapidly imparts Purity and Vitality to the Blood, and action to the Liver, and thereby assists nature in throwing off disease.

Notwithstanding this Syrup is a powerful Curative, but invariably creates an appetite, gives tone and energy to the nervous system, and strengthens the whole body, yet it is mild in its action, and may be safely employed in the most delicate cases. It is agreeable to the taste and stomach, and in diseases of Women and Children, One Bottle of Sloan's Life Syrup will produce more real benefit than ten times the same quantity of any other preparation offered to the public. One table spoonful of this Syrup is all that is necessary, to be given at a time, whereas, nearly all other preparations are recommended to be taken in large quantities, which seldom benefit the patient, and frequently overloads the stomach and produces serious injury—consequently Sloans Life Syrup is not only the best medicine of the kind in use, but it is decidedly the cheapest. For Man it has no equal, and is emphatically the Poor Man's Friend, and a superior Family Medicine.

THE DEMOCRACY OF CHRISTIANITY: OR AN
ANALYSIS OF THE BIBLE AND ITS DOCTRINES,
IN THEIR RELATION TO THE PRINCIPLE OF DEMOCRACY.
In Two Volumes, comprising 875 pages.
By WM. GOODELL.

Published by Cady & Burgess, 60 John st., New-York.

THIS great work is strongly recommended by B. P. Aydelott, D. D., late President of Woodward College, Cincinnati; by Prof. Hudson, of Oberlin; by Hon. Amasa Walker, Secretary of State of Massachusetts, and by a great number of the first men of our country.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We have read the book through very attentively, and can bear testimony to its great ability, and the soundness of its principles. * * * The essay is a very able one, and well adapted, as Cobbett used to say, for a thinking people, and no fair minded and intelligent reader can rise from a perusal of it without a higher appreciation of the Mosaic code, and of true democratic principles."—N. Y. Tribune.

"This work appears anonymously, but it discloses qualities of authorship, of which the writer need not be ashamed. * * * He strikes at the root of the business at once. He traces the democratic principle as it is mingled in all God's provisions for the Patriarchs and the Israelites in the clearest manner. His analysis of the tendency and character of the Mosaic Institutes is particularly able. He discovers a degree of wisdom and benevolence in those provisions but little understood. We have never seen the polished bearings and scope of the Mosaic law so strikingly portrayed. The present volume respects only the doctrines of the Old Testament—we hope the author will be encouraged to go on with the searching and impartial examination."—New York Evangelist.

"The author has given some beautiful illustrations, drawn from Scripture, showing that it abounds with democratic sentiment. * * * It is a work that should attract the attention of the thinking portion of society. The style is attractive, and the subject an interesting one."—American Statesman.

"This, 'Citizen of the United States' deserves a hearing. He is a strong thinker and an able writer—indeed he must be a man of great experience with the pen.—* * * Sweeping from Genesis onward, not a ray of light escapes him which can be construed into the dawning of those glorious popular institutions which we now enjoy. And he certainly finds a great deal to his purpose. * * The Truth is, the Mosaic code made advances towards democracy, which stood alone for centuries, and when we take the strong glasses of such a writer as this, our veneration of the Bible is placed on a very high footing."—Boston Chronotype.

"The subject of this volume is well handled, and justly pressed on the observation of the reader."—Democratic Review.

"We advise all classes to read, mark, and inwardly digest this volume."—Ontario Messenger.

"The field of discussion opened is broad and rich; it has been ably explored, and its treasures of precious truth are revealed with a master's hand."—Oberlin Evangelist.

"The conception of this work is original. * * * We commend it to the perusal and careful study of all classes."—Ohio Star.

"We have neither time nor space to give a general or extended notice of this invaluable production, but merely drop a hint, that our friends may not deprive themselves a single moment of a rich treat, but lay fast hold of it now."—Golden Rule.

GREAT WORK ON CIVILIZATION.—This great work can be had at OTT'S Bookstore, 275 East Water street. It is the work of the age. From a large number of liberal and highly complimentary notices of this work, from the religious and secular press, we only select the following:

"This admirable work is at length before us, and we hasten to inform our readers of the valuable addition, which has thus been made to the Literature of our country. The work is by far the most important of its kind, ever published in this country. It is in fact a complete library in itself, condensed and so arranged as to bring the whole question within the grasp of the humblest reader. It appears most appropriately at the present time, and will, no doubt, prove an instrument of great efficacy in the work of diffusing sound doctrines on the matter of which it treats."—Truth Teller. april22

THE CATHOLIC PULPIT.—Containing a Sermon for every Sunday and Holiday in the year, and for Good Friday. From the last revised London Edition.

This most valuable and celebrated periodical has just arrived at C. OTT'S Bookstore, 275 East Water street, where subscriptions will be received. The work will be completed in semi-monthly numbers, making an 8vo volume of nearly 400 pages, at the low price of two dollars.

To the practical judge of eloquence, this work presents a wide and varied ground of comparison between the respective styles of French, English, German and Italian Oratory.

☞ C. OTT is also Agent for the "Shepherd of the Valley," published at St. Louis—a paper that deserves the widest circulation. june17
